Please make sure before you begin this study, to pray to the Father in heaven, and ask him to give you discernment and wisdom. No earthly man is perfect, and even faith warriors can make mistakes. Always use your Bible to compare with what you are reading, in the actions and choices of the missionaries and people in the books.

If there are any inconsistencies discuss them with your family, and inform them on what the Bible tells us regarding the choices made.

"Do your utmost to present yourself approved to Elohim, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly handling the Word of Truth."

2 Timothy 2:15

Praying for you and your family: Dr. Adu

Course Structure

- 36-week curriculum covering 16 missionaries (approximately 2 weeks per missionary)
- Each missionary unit divided into three components: biographical study, biblical principles exemplified, and practical applications
- Weekly essay assignments for deeper reflection and application
- Final comparative project analyzing two missionaries' unique approaches and lasting impact

The curriculum follows a consistent pattern while allowing flexibility to explore the unique contexts and contributions of each missionary studied.

Inspiring a Legacy of Faith and Service

The Challenge

Students are not just studying history—they're being invited to become part of an ongoing story of faith in action that spans centuries and continents.

The Response

Who will be the next generation to carry the light of the Gospel to unreached places, whether across oceans or across the street?

- ❏ Final Project: Students will create a personal mission statement articulating how the lessons from these 16 missionaries will shape their own approach to faith, service, and purpose.
